SAVANNAH, Ga. - Armstrong Atlantic State University sophomore Clara Perez has been named the Peach Belt Conference's women's tennis Player of the Week, announced today by league officials.

Perez continued her dominant singles play for the Pirates, giving up just four games total in two singles wins this week, while also notching a pair of doubles wins for the top-ranked Pirates. She began the week by defeating Flagler's Barbora Sebkova, 6-1, 6-0, on Tuesday, then downing FMU's Tereza Baranova, 6-2, 6-1, on Wednesday.

The Madrid, Spain, native teamed with Natasa Vukovic to beat Flagler's Santiago and Sebkova, 8-1, and FMU's Specht and Hurter, 8-4, in doubles action. Ranked No. 22 in the nation in singles, Perez continues to lead the PBC in wins as she is an unbeaten 20-0 in singles play this season.

This is the second PBC Player of the Week award for Perez this season as she was also honored with the league's weekly award on March 18.

Perez and the top-ranked Pirates are in action on Monday, playing at Lander in a Peach Belt Conference contest to try and win the regular season league title outright. Armstrong has won 10 straight Peach Belt Conference regular season women's tennis titles.
